G. BAILEY, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. JOHN G. WHITTIER, CORRESPONDING EDITOR.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

The National Era is a weekly newspaper, devoted to Literature and Politics.

In Literature, it sims to units the Beautiful with the True, and to make both immediately subservient to the practical purposes of everyday life.

In Politics, it advocates the Rights of Man, and the Equality of Rights, and opposes whatever violates or tends to violate them, whether this be Involuntary Personal Servitude, Civil Despotism, Spiritual Absolutism, Class Legislation, the Selfishness of Capital, the Tyranny of Combination, the Oppression of a Majority, or the Exactions of Party.

It holds no fellowship with the Whig and Democratic organizations, believing that the main issues on which they have been arrayed against each other are obsolete or settled, and lt is a supporter of the Independent Democracy, which holds that the Truths of the Declaration of Independence are practical, that in their light the Constitution of the United States is to be interpreted, that to them the laws and institutions and usages of the country should be conformed—a Party, whose motto is, Union, not for the sake of Union, but for the sake of Freedom and Progress; and Law, not for the sake of Law, but for the Protection of Human Rights and Interests—the only sure foundation of order and concord. the only sure foundation of order and concord.

In no sense is it the organ of a Party, or a mere Party Paper, but absolutely "free and independent," claiming to speak "by authority" for nobody except its editor, and recognising no authority in any quarter to prescribe its course and policy.

The Eighth Volume of the Era will commence on the first of January ensuing, and be enlarged by the addition of four columns. We have neglected no means that could promise to make it an agreeable companion for the House-hold, and an efficient co-adjutor to the enlight-ed Politician. It has secured able correspond-ents at home and abroad, and no journal in ents at home and abroad, and no journal in the country can surpass the Era as it respects contributors to its Literary Department.

The Era publishes condensed reports of the proceedings of Congress, explains movements in that body, the causes of which do not always lie upon the surface, and from its position is enabled to keep a constant watch upon the action of the Federal Government in relation to all caustions at issue between Liberty and to all questions at issue between Liberty and

The only journal at the seat of the Federal Government, representing the Anti-Slavery Sentiment of the Republic, while the Pro-Slavery Sentiment is represented here by four daily papers, nearly all of them being liberally sustained by Governmental patronage, it asks the support of all who believe, in sincerity, that the Union was formed to secure the blessings and not to perpetuate the curse or Slavery.

Payment in advance is invariably required. To prevent annoyance and loss to ourselve and readers to preserve their files unbroken and to enable us to know how large an edi-tion of the paper to issue, all subscriptions should be renewed before they expire. We LITTELL'S LIVING AGE-1554. A beautiful Engraving in each Number.

THE LIVING AGE has been abundantly honored by the approbation of the best judges; it has been pronounced to be sound and vigorous; various and entertaining; full of spirit and life; uniting the qualities which gratify the scholar, the philosopher, and the man of business, with those which recommend it to their wives and children. We shall now endeavor to add to these intrinsic excellences the greater attractions of Art, and, beginning with 1854, Every Number will contain an Impression from a beautiful Steel Plate.

The 52 Plates a year will alone be worth the price

a beautiful Steel Plate.

The 52 Plates a year will alone be worth the price of subscription.

This work is made up of the elaborate and stately essays of the Edinburgh, Quarterly, and other Reviews; and Blackwood's noble criticisms on poetry, his keen political commentaries, highly wrought takes, and vivid descriptions of rural and mountain scenery; and the contributions to literature, history, and common life, by the sagacious Spectator, the sparkling Examiner, the junicious Athanaum, the busy and industrious Literary Gazette, the sensible and comprehensive Britannia, the sober and respect able Christian Observer; these are intermixed with the military and naval reminiscences of the United Service, and with the best articles of the Dublin University, New Monthly, Fraser's, Tait's, Ainscorth's, Hood's, and Sporting Magazines, and of Chambers admirable Journal. We do not consider it beneath our dignity to borrew wit and wisdom from Panch, and, when we think it good enough, make use of the thunder of The Times. We shall increase our variety by importations from the continent of Europe, and from the new growth of the British colonies.

THE LIVING AGE is published every Saturday, by LITTELL, SON, & COMPANY, corner of Tremont and Bromfield streets, Boston. Price 124 cents a number, or six dollars a year in advance. Remit tances for any period will be thankfully received and promptly attended to.

POSTAGE FREE.

We will send the Living Age, postage free, to all subscribers within the United States who remit in advance, directly to the office of publication, the sum of six dollars; thus placing our distant subscriber on the same footing as those nearer to us, and making the whole country our neighborhood.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

Mr. Downing in his Herticulturists.

Mr. Downing, in his Horticulturist, says: "It deals more with facts, with actual experience and observation, and less with speculation, supposition, and belief, than anything on this topic that has yet appeared in the United States. In other words, a man may take it, and plant a vineyard, and raise grapes with success."

"Furnishes, in a small space, a very great amount of instructive information relative to the culture of the Grape." - Farmer's and Planter's Encyclopedia. "Will be found to convey the most opportune and valuable instruction, to all interested in the subject."

NEW YORK CENTRAL COLLEGE. Located in the village of McGrawville, in the count

Located in the village of McGrawville, in the county of fortland New York, was founded in 1849, upon the broad principles of "Equal B ights and Christian Reform," and is open to all persons, of both sexes, of good moral character.

It has been the purpose of the Trustees of this School, from the first, to make it both safe and inviting to Students; and we believe we may now safely recommend it, under the supervision and care of President Leonard G. Calkins, whose ability for that responsible office has been most happily tested, that responsible office has been most happily tested, assisted by a competent 'Board of Instruction.' Free from the unholy influence of larger towns, and per-vaded by moral influences, republican habits, and Christian example, associated with manual labor, we think parents must feel a degree of security, begotten by no other set of circumstances.

One arrangement in this Institution, not to be overlooked in this day of "public speaking," is a Rhetorical Class, with daily exercises in extemporaneous speaking, under the careful training of the President.

The student of small means, aspiring to a thorough intellectual education by his own energies, will find in this College sympathy and aid in his ardnous and noble work. The Manual Labor Department of the School is

The Manual Labor Department of the School is under the supervision of Mr. Luther Wellington, a practical farmer, a kind and benevolent man, on a farm of one hundred and fifty-seven acres.

A primary school is taught by Mi s Koziah King, a thorough and efficient teacher for the accommodation of any one who may not be prepared to enter the Academic Department.

The hearding hall will be conducted by Mr. Lyman Butts, who, together with an amiable family, will make boarding both cheap and pleasant.

The College year is divided into three terms: The first term, of fourteen weeks, will open on the first Thursday in September.

The second, or Winter term, will commence on the second Thursday in December, and continue fourteen weeks.

The third and last, or Summer term, will begin or

Human Rights and Interests—the only sure foundation of order and concord.

In no sense will it be the organ of a Party, or a mere Party Paper, but absolutely "free and independent," claiming to speak by "authority" for nobody except its editor, and recognising no authority in any quarter to prescribe its course and policy.

In Literature, it will aim to unite the Beautiful with the True, and to make both immediately subscribent to the practical purposes of every-day life.

Able correspondents, at home and abroad, have been secured, and ample provision has been made for its Literary Miscellany.

It will publish condensed reports of the proceedings of Congress, explain movements in that body, the causes of which do not always lie upon the surface, and from its position be able to keep a constant watch upon the action of the Federal Government in relation to all questions at issue between Liberty and Slavery.

The extensive subscription of the Weekly Era, which, during the year about to close, has reached the number of twenty-eight thousand, must make it an eligible medium for advertisers.

The Daily Era will be issued on a sheet as large as that of the Daily National Intelligencer, on the 2d day of January, 1854, and daily thereafter, until the 1st of September, 1854, (or longer, should Congress continue in session,) at FIVE DOLLARS FOR THAT PERIOD; and should the result then warrant, the publication will be resulted on the 1st of September following, the result then WARRANT, the publication will be resumed on the 1st of September following, much of darkness and despair — Daily Bee, Boston.

The life of Little Gerty, as portrayed in the Lamplighter, is as deeply affecting as the best sketches of Dickens. Few persons having commenced this work will be willing to put it aside until they have gone through. The author, whoever she may be, has no reason to withhold her name, as the book would do credit to any writer.— Daily Advertises, Boston.

The Lamplighter teaches important truths, which cannot be too frequently impressed upon the minds of all; and no one can study its instructive and fascinating pages, without being made better by its kindly influences. Its author has evidently a highly cultivated and refined, as well as an original and imaginative mind, and writes with the case, the classical correctness of diction, and that choice selection of terms, which indicate the good English scholar. In this respect, the Lamplighter is much superior to Uncied Tom's Cabin, whose inclegances meet us at every turn.—Boston Daily Atlos.
